

Crisis Response Service

Help when you need it.

Confidential support and counselling to people living or visiting in the District of East Algoma (from Spanish to Iron Bridge, including Elliot Lake).

By phone and in person. Your place or ours.

A CRISIS is a personal experience that can happen at any time.

A crisis can be triggered by an unexpected event or loss (i.e. job/relationship). Something you may have been coping with for a while that you feel you can no longer manage, like stress at work or school, feeling alone, or thoughts of suicide.

Call us for help:

Weekdays (Mon. to Fri.)

8:30am to 4:30pm - 705.848.2585

After hours and weekends - 1.800.721.0077

Drop in for help:

Elliot Lake: 9 Oakland Blvd, Suite 2

Blind River: 1 Industrial Park Rd, Suite 210

Drop-in, open weekdays (Mon. to Fri.) 8:30am to 4:30pm (Blind River closed 12pm to 1pm).

No appointment necessary.

Safe and private.

We will come see you at a safe location - home, school, shelter, treatment facility, or a familiar agency where you feel safe.

Crisis Response Service
Help when you need it.

Counselling Centre
of East Algoma

Centre de counseling
d'Algoma Est

Elliot Lake | Blind River

Supported by:

Ontario

North East Local Health
Integration Network

Through our partnership with Sault Area Hospital Crisis Line, services are available 365 days a year.